PROFILE

From the moment I wrote my first line of code, I was immediately drawn into the realm of front-end web development. However, front-end web development has never been "simply a job" for me; rather, it has presented an interesting challenge to continuously learn and enhance my abilities in order to create aesthetically pleasing and functional websites. What started off as a spark of interest has since developed into a full-fledged passion that only gets more exciting with time. Below, you'll find projects I've completed that demonstrate my abilities and general front-end web development experience.
